

Indigenous Health

Orange Shirt Day September 30

Each September 30, Canadians are called upon to wear orange in acknowledgement of the harmful legacy of residential schools, and to create awareness and honour the healing journey of victims, survivors, and their families.

This year, in recognition of National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, customized “Every Child Matters” shirts will be available through Indigenous Health.

Each year, proceeds from the sale of these shirts support a deserving community not-for-profit organization providing services to Indigenous Manitobans.

Be sure to place your order as in-person sales will be very limited.

Pre-sale orders available
July 28 – August 18, 2022.

More information can be found here.

